

1PASSWORD PRODUCT-SPECIFIC TERMS

Customer's use of 1Password's Unified Access (“Unified Access”) Service is subject to these Product-Specific Terms and the governing agreement between Customer and 1Password referencing these terms (the “Agreement”).<sup>1</sup> Terms not expressly defined herein have the meaning given in the Agreement.

Unified Access

1. Updated Definitions. When Customer uses Unified Access, the following apply to the definitions in the Agreement:

- (i) The following supplements the Agreement's definitions:
  - a) Customer Data also includes information that the Integration Technology accesses from Customer Devices or systems enabled by Customer;
- (ii) The following definitions are added to the Agreement:
  - a) Customer Device means any electronic device that processes data and communicates with the Platform, including browsers, personal computers, mobile and tablet devices, and servers, or other devices or terminal equipment supported by the Services;
  - b) Device Owners means employees or consultants of Customer that use one or more Customer Devices (each also an Authorized User); and
  - c) Integration Technology means software applications, agents, and APIs that enable integration and communication between Customer Devices and the Services.

2. Unified Access-specific license and restriction. The following license term applies in addition to the license permissions and restrictions in the Agreement. 1Password grants to Customer a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to download, copy, and execute Integration Technology solely for the purpose of enabling communication between Customer Devices and the Services. Except as expressly permitted in the Agreement, Customer will not, and will not permit its Authorized Users or other third party to, download or install any Integration Technology on a Customer Device for which the Customer or Device Owner does not have proper authority to do so.

3. Customer Requirement to Obtain Consents from Authorized Users. Customer is solely responsible for the accuracy, legality, and use of the Customer Data. Customer represents and warrants that its and its Authorized Users' use of the Services, including the deployment of Integration Technology on any Customer Devices and the collection of any Customer Data from such Customer Devices by the Services is in compliance with all Applicable Laws and Customer's policies and procedures. Without limiting the foregoing, Customer will, in accordance with all Applicable Laws and best commercial practices:

<sup>1</sup> 1Password reserves the right to update or change any portion of these Product-Specific Terms at any time. We will provide you with reasonable advance notice of changes to these Product-Specific Terms that materially adversely affect your use of the Services or your rights under these Product-Specific Terms by sending an email to the primary email address in our records or by similar means. However, 1Password may make changes that materially adversely affect your use of the Services or your rights under these Product-Specific Terms at any time and with immediate effect (i) for legal, regulatory, fraud and abuse prevention, or security reasons; or (ii) to restrict products or activities that we deem unsafe, inappropriate, or offensive. Unless we indicate otherwise in our notice (if applicable), any changes to these Product-Specific Terms will be effective immediately upon posting of such updated terms in 1Password's legal center. Your continued access to or use of the Services after we provide such notice, if applicable, or after we post such updated terms, constitutes your acceptance of the changes and consent to be bound by these Product-Specific Terms as amended. If you do not agree to the amended Product-Specific Terms, you must stop accessing and using the Services.

- (i) disclose to all Authorized Users, including Device Owners, the fact that:
  - a) 1Password Integration Technology is downloaded onto Customer Devices;
  - b) 1Password collects, uses, and shares the Customer Data in accordance with the Agreement; and
  - c) 1Password's sub-processors may have access and, if they do, notify Authorized Users of such third-parties' rights to use the Customer Data; and
- (ii) obtain and store all necessary rights, permissions, consents and approvals from Authorized Users with respect to the foregoing.

4. Customer Licensed Technologies. Certain features of Unified Access may require that Customer obtain the right for 1Password to access certain third-party technologies licensed, used or accessed by Customer and Authorized Users (collectively, "Customer Licensed Technologies"). In the event that Customer provides or makes available to 1Password any Customer Licensed Technologies, Customer hereby grants to 1Password a royalty-free, worldwide, sublicensable, transferable, non-exclusive right and license to use and access the Customer Licensed Technologies, and to use any data collected from such Customer Licensed Technologies in the same manner that 1Password is authorized to use the Customer Data. Customer represents and warrants that Customer possesses all rights and licenses necessary to make such grant to 1Password. 1PASSWORD DOES NOT WARRANT THAT IT SUPPORTS ANY CUSTOMER LICENSED TECHNOLOGIES. 1PASSWORD'S USE OF OR INTEGRATION WITH ANY SUCH CUSTOMER LICENSED TECHNOLOGIES IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND WITHOUT WARRANTY EXCEPT AS SET FORTH HEREIN.

5. Unified Access-specific security measures. Customer is responsible for all login credentials and Authorized User accounts, and for maintaining their security. 1Password will not be responsible for any damages, losses or liability to Customer, Authorized Users, or anyone else, if such information is not kept confidential by Customer or its Authorized Users, or if such information is correctly provided by an unauthorized third party logging into and accessing the Services. Any passwords used for the Services are for individual use only. 1Password may passively monitor passwords and, at its discretion, require a user to change such user's password. If Customer or an Authorized User uses a password that 1Password considers insecure, 1Password may require the password to be changed or may terminate the applicable account. 1Password reserves the right to fully cooperate with any law enforcement authorities or court order requesting or directing 1Password to disclose the identity of anyone violating this Agreement or any Applicable Laws.

6. Product Scope. These Product-Specific Terms apply solely to Customer's use of Unified Access and do not apply to other 1Password products or services, including Extended Access Management (XAM), which are governed by separate terms.
